

DON'T BE A ROAD HOG.
SHARE THE ROAD.

TIPS FOR SHARING THE ROAD.

Whether you're on a mission to get from Point A to Point B on foot, or in your car, or your mission is to soak up spectacular Colorado scenery on a Sunday bike ride, be respectful of everyone's rights to our roadway

You can help cut down on Colorado's pesky Road Hog population.

Motorists

Focus on driving. Avoid using cell phones and other personal devices while driving.

Keep your eye on cyclists and pedestrians. They have a right to use all the roads in Colorado unless expressly prohibited.

Keep track of them in your rear and side mirrors.
Slow down.

Pedestrians

Cross in crosswalks. Pedestrians have the right of way at crosswalks and intersections.

Make eye contact with drivers before crossing to ensure they see you.

Walk against traffic.

Cyclists

Ride with the flow of traffic.

Obey traffic laws-you're a vehicle too.

To cross at a traffic signal that hasn't been triggered by a vehicle, go to the sidewalk and press the pedestrian push-button or bike indicator.

Ride single file whenever possible.

We all walk, bike and drive. Let's all share the road.
